

Gentlemen,Aside from the convenience of have local information like traffic and weather there is a safety issue. My wife happend to be using her Delphi XM radio, which does not receive AM or FM, during the recent severe weather in the St. Louis area on May 27, 2004 and got information she would not otherwiase have had.

Please do not remove this capability from the satellite radio broadcasters.

Jim Klingler